

COMING SOON

EAHAD 2025 ANNUAL CONGRESS!

TRANSFORMING VWD CARE:

Optimizing the Patient Journey
from Diagnosis to Management

Wednesday, February 5, 2025

13:45-15:00 CET

MICO Congress Centre, Milan, Italy
Ocean Room 3+4

Join world-class experts at EAHAD 2025 to discuss the latest advancements in VWD care! Using patient cases, we will explore the complexities of VWD, uncover how genetic insights enhance early diagnosis, and discuss the paradigm shift needed to improve clinical outcomes.

Johannes Oldenburg
(Chair)

13:45-13:50

Welcome and Introduction

Johannes Oldenburg (Chair), University of Bonn, Bonn, Germany

13:50-14:05

Recognizing VWD across Diverse Populations

Michelle Lavin, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, Dublin, Ireland

Michelle Lavin

14:05-14:20

Harnessing Genetic Insights to Guide Personalized VWD Management

Karin van Galen, University Medical Center Utrecht, Utrecht, Netherlands

Karin van Galen

14:20-14:35

Transforming the Standard of Care

Johannes Oldenburg, University of Bonn, Bonn, Germany

14:35-15:00

Optimizing the VWD Patient Journey: Panel Discussion and Q&A

EAHAD, European Association for Haemophilia and Allied Disorders; Q&A, question and answer; VWD, von Willebrand disease.

This EAHAD-authorized symposium is initiated, organized, and funded by Takeda, and is intended only for healthcare professionals registered for the EAHAD 2025 Congress. Please be advised that this symposium is a non-CME event.

Copyright 2024. Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Limited. All rights reserved.

Takeda and the Takeda logo are registered trademarks of Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Limited.

VV-MEDMAT-114139 12/2024

C-ANPROM/IT/HEM/0006

