

This is a medical education non-promotional event, organized and funded by Sanofi for healthcare professionals only, which is not eligible for CME credits. Speakers will be compensated for their participation.

Satellite Symposium at EAHAD 2026, Dublin, Ireland

Finding Haemostatic Balance Within the Evolving Treatment Landscape

60-minute live symposium with Q&A

Add to Your Calendar

Wednesday 4th February, 16:00–17:00 GMT
The Liffey B, The Convention Centre Dublin, Ireland

FACULTY

Beatrice Nolan (Chair)	Consultant in Haematology, Children’s Health Ireland, Crumlin, Dublin, Ireland
Tammuella Chrisentery-Singleton	Co-Director, Hemostasis and Thrombosis Program, Ochsner Clinic Foundation, New Orleans, USA
Alok Srivastava	Professor & Head, Haematology Research Unit, St. Johns Research Institute; Senior Consultant in Clinical Haematology, St. John’s Medical College Hospital, Bengaluru, India

AGENDA

Timings	Title	Speaker
16:00–16:10	Introduction to the Evolving Haemophilia Treatment Landscape	Beatrice Nolan (Chair)
16:10–16:20	Overview of Mechanisms for Haemostatic Balance	Tammuella Chrisentery-Singleton
16:20–16:35	Clinical Considerations for Implementation of Emerging Haemophilia Treatments	Alok Srivastava
16:35–17:00	Panel Discussion with Q&A	All speakers, led by the Chair

If you would like to submit any questions ahead of the symposium, please click here or scan the QR code.

